

A report on Qtr-I IIC Calendar Workshop Activity on “Entrepreneurship and Innovation as Career Opportunity” by

Koustav Das

CEO of CABIIF-SRTMUN (Incubator at University Campus)

Thursday, 24-Nov-2022, 5 PM, A4 hall

Organized by

SGGSJET-AICTE IDEA Laboratory and Institution's Innovation Council

India has seen a dramatic acceleration in both the quantum and the diversity of startups. Over the last 10 years, India has become one of the top five startup ecosystems in the world, alongside the US, China, the UK, and Israel. Incubators provide the support needed for innovators in their journey to realize the start-up dream. This support can be in terms of infrastructure, mentorship, finance, legal, marketing, and more. Koustav Das, CEO of CABIIF-SRTMUN (Incubator at University Campus) explained the attendee students and faculty all about the start-up revolution in India, why we should join the revolution, and what the incubators are offering innovators to join the revolution. A brief agenda was as follows: Need of Startup Incubation, Basics of Startup Incubation, Building a Robust Startup Ecosystem in an Institute, Support & Services Offered by Incubators, Current scenario of Business incubation in India, Support offered by CABIIF-SRTMUN.

About CABIIF: Centre for Agro-Bio Innovation and Incubation Foundation (CABIIF) at Swami Ramanand Teerth Marathwada University (SRTMU), Nanded is incubator sponsored by Maharashtra State Innovation Society (MSInS). It is aimed at providing a platform to encourage, promote and nucleate startups, to prove conceptual ideas of our faculty members at commercial level. Governed by section 8 company, it is an autonomous body with a corporate culture - the first incubator of the region aimed at providing a platform for our scientists, startups and industries to develop and commercialize products that will contribute significantly in economy as well as job sector of the Marathwada region.
