

Notice

All students who are having backlogs (but going to higher classes) can pay the fees as per academic calendar (during 15th to 19th July 2019) and contact the concerned teachers and understand and participate in ISE evaluations during the semester. Also check for your name to appear in the lists to be published on 24th July 2019.

Those who are YD students to register for courses, pay the fees as per the schedule (Academic Calendar during 15th to 19th July 2019) and start attending these courses in the regular term itself. If they do not attend classes or do not register during the regular semester, they will not be permitted to appear for the SUMMER TERM. Also check for your name to appear in the lists to be published on 24th July 2019.

Note: All to start attending classes (even if your name does not appear in the attendance lists in the subjects) by requesting the teachers to allow.

This message is important for ISE evaluations and strict academic discipline.
